A Morning Wedding-

Wednesday forenoon at 11 o'clock, St. Andrew's Cathedral was crowded with a gay and fashionable audience, to witness the marriage of Francis M. Swanzy, Esq., of the firm of T. H. Davies & Co., to Miss Julie Judd, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Charles H. Judd, of this city. The Church had been decorated expressly for the occasion, and presented a beautiful sight. The entrance had an arch made of palm leaves, extending from the door to the carriage drive. Wreaths of flowers and evergreens were hung under the arches and circling the pillars, while over the altar was suspended a floral marriage bell of roses and other flowers. This decoration of the church was the work of several young ladies, among them Miss Nellie Judd, Mrs. P. C. Jones, Mrs. J. O. Carter and others. At 11 sharp, the organ, presided over by Mr. Wray Taylor, sounded the loud notes of the Wedding March, and shortly after the groom, accompanied by his best man, Mr. E. Muller, entered, followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Panabi Judd, Miss Fanny Swanzy, Miss Cotta Mist and Miss Helen Castle, and the groomsmen Messrs. Hay Wodebouse. H. M. Whitney, jr., Hastings Judd and John Dowsett, and lastly the bride, escorted by her father. The bride was dressed in a cream-colored silk, and the brides mails two each in blue and nink bridesmaids, two each in blue and pink. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Alex. Mackintosh. Among the guests present were His Majesty the King, Her Royal Highness Princess Liliu kalani and Governor Dominis, Hon. A. S. (leghorn and daughter, Princess Kaiulani, who occupied the front seat. The family and relations of the bride and groom occupied the other front seats. The church was crowded and many were unable to obtain seats. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the residence of Col. Judd, near Punahou, where they took their wedding breakfast, and in the after-noon Mr. Swanzy and his bride drove out to Leilehua, the Colonel's country seat, where they will spend a few days.
